

Character Profile Planning Guide

Today you are going to be learning how to create your own imaginary character.

You will be using this character in an imaginary story.

You have two sheets. The first sheet to fill in is all about describing your characters name, what your character looks like, what they like and dislike, who is in their family, and what job they have. The second sheet is for you to draw a picture of your character. Be as descriptive as you can!

Sheet 1 - Character Profile

Name:

This can be any name you want.

Appearance

What does your character look like? Try to include:-

- Eye Colour
- Hair Colour
- Skin Colour
- Height
- Weight
- What they might wear

Special Features

Does your character have any special features? For example they might have scars or spots. Where are these special features?

Likes

What does your character like? This could include the food they like to eat, places they like to go, games they like to play, animals they like, and much more. Try to think up lots of activities your character would like.

Dislikes.

What does your character dislike? This could include the food they do not like to eat, places they do not like to go, games they do not like to play, animals they do not like, and much more. Try to think up lots of activities your character would dislike.

Job

What is your character's job? Do they like their job?

Family

Who is in your character's family? Do they have any brothers or sisters? Who do they live with? Do they still live at home with their family, or do they live on their own?

REMEMBER: Try to use as many describing words as you can.

Sheet 2 - Character Profile

On this sheet you will be drawing your character. Make sure that the drawing of your character matches your description of your character.
